InvestorForce Selected by Towers Watson for Advanced Performance Reporting Solutions

WAYNE, PA, May 3, 2010 – InvestorForce, Inc., a leading software provider of web-based reporting and analytical tools for institutional investment consultants and investors, is pleased to announce an agreement with global professional services firm Towers Watson (NYSE, NASDAQ: TW) to provide its U.S. subsidiary, Towers Watson Investment Services, Inc., with the advanced services of InvestorForce's Performance Reporting Network.

Towers Watson, one of the world's largest global institutional investment consulting companies, will use InvestorForce's Performance Reporting Network to help automate its reporting and performance measurement processes. The firm will gain access to a rich suite of analytics and to critical daily portfolio information through InvestorForce's Performance Measurement, Investment Reporting, and Insight services.

"InvestorForce's fully integrated, web-based platform gives us the advanced performance measurement capabilities we need to streamline our reporting processes globally," said Carl Hess, global head of investment at Towers Watson. "We continually strive to provide our clients with timely, insightful reporting. InvestorForce offers us a compelling mix of data and analytics features, accelerating the turnaround time for client reporting."

"We are thrilled to welcome Towers Watson, one of the global leaders in institutional investment consulting, as a client," said Jim Morrissey, CEO of Wayne, PA-based InvestorForce. "InvestorForce is dedicated to driving progress and improved client relationships for Towers Watson by continuing to build upon our state of the art, next generation reporting and business management platform."

With the addition of Towers Watson to InvestorForce's client base, the company now has over $4.0 trillion in combined assets managed through its platform.
